

Audition Workshop Info and Parent Release Form

Thank you for your interest in our audition workshop class. Please read the information below and be sure your student brings this signed form to the workshop so they can participate.

Date & Time: Wednesday, September 13, 2023 from 1:30-3:00. Please pick up your child on time. Students on Stage is not responsible for students left unattended after school.

This class does not guarantee that you will make it into our spring musical, Beauty & the Beast. This class is only to help your student become more prepared for the audition process.

In the workshop, we will discuss how to prepare an audition song, how to present yourself during the audition process, what to wear for an audition, and what the directors want to see in an audition. Each student will receive a link to our dropbox folder with appropriate one-minute audition songs to choose from along with lyrics and vocal guides to each song. We will also discuss what a callback is and how to prepare if you are called back for a main character.

If you are auditioning for Beauty & the Beast, you will need to sign-up to get an audition time. Sign-ups are open and you can find the link to our sign-up site on our website: studentsonstage.org.

In order to participate in the Audition Workshop Class, you will need to turn in this signed form on the day of the workshop. Please only bring this form to the workshop. We do not need any additional paperwork.

Parent Release Form:

I _____, give permission for my child, _____ to participate in the Audition Workshop Class.
